

The Scottish Government
Riaghaltas na h-Alba

Procuring a Sustainable Future for People and Planet

Virtual Event

Thursday 23rd November 2023 - 2.00 to 3.30pm

Location

Virtual - join via Microsoft Teams

Invitations will be issued once the booking is confirmed.

Overview

This event will be of interest to anyone working in procurement or undertaking procurement within the public sector. The session will also be relevant to change managers, economic development specialists and climate change practitioners.

Join Scottish Government, Scotland Excel, the Improvement Service and the Sustainable Scotland Network to:

- Hear an update on recent research into the tools, methodologies and approaches for a practical understanding of procurement and ClimateXChange
- Participate in a discussion to share ideas, barriers and good practice across the public sector
- Explore priority areas and shape the future support needed

Agenda

2pm	Welcome
2.05pm	Setting the Scene – Scottish Government perspective Speakers: Jo Mitchell and Hannah Neufeld Highlighting some of the challenges being posed on procurement emissions
2.15pm	Scope 3 Emissions & Climate Through the Procurement Cycle Speaker: Philip Duddell Input from Scottish Government about work through ClimateXChange on tools, methodologies and approaches
2.40pm	Scotland Excel - A collaborative approach supporting net-zero objectives Speaker: Mary Mitchell How Scotland Excel engaged professionals, thought leaders and policy developers in the creation of an innovative approach to contract development
3pm	Q&A Discussion on barriers and opportunities
3.20pm	Next steps and wrap up

How can I access the session?

Bookings for the session will be taken on a first come, first served basis. To book your place, please contact Helene Holden at helene.holden@scotland-excel.org.uk.